

Junior Customs Broker

George Turner Pty Ltd was established in 1921 to service the emerging importing community in Melbourne. Today as part of the “K” Line group of companies, we continue to provide small business service, backed by the support of a global parent company.

We are now seeking for a Junior Customs Broker to work in our Port Melbourne office. We service a diverse client base, including many house hold names. We pride ourselves on our reputation as one of Australia’s premier Customs Brokerages.

Being part of a small friendly team, you will report to the General Manager and will contribute to the continued success of the business by;

- Classifying and compiling entries
- Possessing solid experience in DAWR and IFIS lodgement
- Working with clients in a manner that continues our reputation in the industry as providing exceptional customer service
- Proving prompt and accurate advice to client in relation to tariff/classification advice, FTA,
- Processing Draw Backs, Refunds and Tariff Advices
- Applying for Tariff Concession Orders
- Providing registration and cartage support when required

If you have completed the accredited course in Custom Brokering and is now looking for work experience in order to obtain a customs broker's licence, this position is just right for you.

Apply now by sending your resume to jennifer@kawasakiaustralia.com.au

Only qualified and successful candidates will be contacted.